

Q-Park Student Award 2022

Dr. Giuliano Mingardo

Q-Park Student Award

- It's an important step to bridge the knowledge gap in parking and mobility;
- It's a joint project of Q-Park and Erasmus University Rotterdam
- For the best bachelor and master theses on parking and mobility
- It's open to all European Universities
- Started in 2014
- More than 60 theses submitted

THESIS AWARD - LUSTRUM BOOK

UPT
Erasmus
ERASMUS CENTRE FOR URBAN
PORT AND TRANSPORT ECONOMICS

Q-PARK Quality in parking

2019

Themes

The theses have covered a vast variety of topics, such as:

- Parking Demand
- Parking Choice Behaviour
- Parking as Mobility Tool
- Parking and Electric Vehicles
- Car ownership
- Bicycle parking
- MaaS
- ...

Q-Park Student Award 2022

- 8 projects from 6 different European universities;
- High scientific standards;
- Topics
 - Empowering local authorities towards successful Dynamic Curbside Management
 - A comparative study on bicycle parking in Antwerp, Leuven and Paris
 - Urbanistic study of parking areas management in the centre of Velenje
 - Distancing from the car - The willingness of residents of Utrecht to park their car remotely at Mobility Hub XL Papendorp
 - Rozemaai? Rozemooi! – A masterplan for Rozemaai (Antwerp)

Q-Park Student Award 2022

The winners:

- Renske van't Veer (TU Delft) – Vehicle-owners' intention to use MaaS
- Femke Herben (EUR) – The impact of residential urbanism and aging of young adults on car travel demand in the NL
- Pieter De Smet (Universiteit Antwerpen) – Autoloos door het leven: analyse Belgisch autodeellandschap

THANKS

Giuliano Mingardo
Erasmus Universiteit Rotterdam
mingardo@ese.eur.nl